

FREE emergency contraception for under 25's

AVAILABLE
HERE

Emergency contraception (EHC) is often called 'the morning after pill' - in fact EHC can be taken up to 120 hours (5 days) after having sex, but the sooner you take it the more effective it is at preventing pregnancy.

Speak to our pharmacist in private...

For the Calderdale
Sexual Health
Service, Tel: 01422
261370

You can also get EHC
and other sexual health services from your GP.